

WHAT TO DO ON A RAINY DAY IN SAUGATUCK & DOUGLAS

Go Bowling @ Lakeview Lanes and stay for lunch on the porch

Visit the Historical Society Pump House Museum for this year's unique exhibit The Dunelands and watch the river traffic from their elevated perch

Catch the latest exhibit at the Saugatuck Center for the Arts in the Bertha Reid Exhibition Hall

Ride the Star of Saugatuck while enjoying snacks and staying dry in its windowed lower deck

Visit our many galleries and see why we are called the art coast of the midwest.

Perfect your shot at the Laketown Conference Center Driving Range in their covered tee boxes

Catch up on news from home while visiting the library in Douglas with full internet services

Shop to your heart's content in downtown Douglas & Saugatuck – everything from the eclectic to the sublime

Spend an afternoon tasting at our two fine wine tasting rooms

Pamper yourself at Bella Vita Spa and Suites

Enjoy a performance by the Village Puppeteers

Stroll the aisles of the Blue Star Antique Pavilion and enjoy a tour of the Saugatuck Brewery with lunch and fine beers to enjoy

Break a sweat and work out at the Pump House Gym, Satya Yoga Saugatuck, or Snap Fitness

Take a class at the Uncommon Grounds Roasting Facility and Coffee Institute

Take a Hungry Village Tour

The places listed above are all members of the Saugatuck/Douglas Area Business Association